BEST TIME TO VISIT NICARAGUA FOR SURFING

Nicaragua's surfing season is March to November for intermediate to advanced surfers with primary all-day offshore winds March to May and breezy offshores June to September from 7AM to 1 PM.

June, July, and August month will either blow offshore all day or turn onshore normally around 1 PM cooling down the tropical heat with an evening glass off.

If you are coming to surf, we can assure you high wave counts during your stay at Casa La Barra Surf Resort. Our guests also get solo sessions on the local waves so always be watching the tides for a quick sneaker session.
